Jeannette and McKettrick picked up were cass, so what did they care for the soft marks who paid to see the slaughter? The unknown man at Lewiston and the Jones Derson played parts in the old game of "setup" a game that unsophisticated eports in small cities and towns have been devouring for years.

But Jeannette isn't alone in arranging setups, for persons in close touch with pugilism say that many star boxers, including K.O. Brown, are doing it. The game of "setup" is successfully played when a star fighter and his manager plant men, with whom they have an under-

f commercialism boxers and managers ill stretch a point or two to get the money, and when hard pressed they find that the setup game is of some value. In time, owever, country folks will become edusted and such methods will prove futile.

In spite of the reling of the State Athletic Commission that Jack Johnson will not be allowed to box here a local club is said to be working tooth and half to arrange a ten round boat between the negro champion and Albert Falzer Johnson. It is reported, can have a $15,000 guarantee for this affair. If an attempt is made to stage this fight it is predicted that the commission will take the buil by the horns, revoke the club's license and will call upon the Police Department to enforce the law. If the elub is license and will call upon the Police loub without a license should attempt to operate under the corporation members to operate under the commission would apply for warrants and a police raid would result. The boxing game has prospered here with out the presence of Johnson and the commission's refusal to allow he negre to appear in a local ring is generally com-mended.

Mike Gibbons of St. Paul began hard work at the New Polo A. C. in Hartem yesterday for his bout with Jeft Smith of Bayonne at the National Sporting Club next Thursday night. Gibbons says he has been seffering from stomach trouble but apparently he has recovered. He does not underestimate Smith and declares that he will be in prime condition when he answers the gong. In the opinion of ring sharps Smith will prove a more dangerous antagonist than any of the boxers Gibbons has deleated in this city. The St. Paul phenom therefore may have to extend himself.

The Jeff Smith case, involving a writ of certiforari compelling the commission to make the close score of 2 goals to 1.

Show its legal right to compel the bover to appear at a club in Albany before filling other engagements, probably will be dropped, smith, it was said yesterday, would box in Albany to-morrow might in obedience to the commission's ruling.

Freddie Hicks of Detroit will be Bob Moha's opponent at the Madison A. C. Tuesday night. The Empire A. C. will hold another "climination tourney" for feather and bantam weights Wednesday night. The featherweight bouts, ten rounds each, are Johan's Dundee vs. Tommy Houck, 122 pounds at 3 o'clock, and Joe Coster vs. Jimmy Walsh, 123 pounds ringside. The winners will meet next week to determine which shall book up with Champion kilbane. There will be three 105 pound battles, each of six rounds. Balmy airs sent golfers speeding to the links yesterday, incidentally causing the countenance of many a steward to beam with satisfaction. Although the regular competitive opening at the Dyker Meadow competitive opening at the Dyker Meadow Golf Club is not scheduled to take place until April 20, there were sixty members on the course, and they were all gratified to find the summer greens in commission. The match of the day there consisted of a four ball affair between C. J. Crookall and E. F. Hunt on one side and H. O. Parsons and E. L. Rhett on the other. Crookall and Hunt conceded their opponents an allowance of 1 up going out, but even so the Irrst named pair turned for home 2 up. Being magnanimous, the leaders offered the opposition an allowance of 2 up to start the inward nine, which ended all square, so that Hunt and Crookall won the match by 2 up. Hunt made a 76 and his partner 79, while Rhett and Parsons returned 81 and 82 respectively.
